Named owners

The apostrophe is used to show possession by someone or something.

1. Write the phrase with the possessive apostrophe to represent each sentence.

   (a) Sam and Mitchell share the same sisters.

   (b) Ryan and Luke have different computer games.

   (c) Lisa and Joanne share the same teachers.

   (d) Mum and Dad share the same hobbies.

   (e) Rover and Toby have different kennels.

2. Write a sentence to explain each phrase.

   (a) Jack’s and Jill’s buckets

   (b) Bill’s and Ben’s flowerpots

   (c) Lassie and Rover’s owners

   (d) Mum’s and Dad’s cars

   (e) Harry and Hannah’s goats