Commas are used to set off geographical names.

Examples:

The Great Barrier Reef is located off the coast of Queensland, Australia.
A popular tourist drive is the Great Ocean Road, Victoria.
Mount Wellington towers above the city of Hobart, Tasmania.

Commas are used to set off parts of an address.

Examples:

The Melbourne Cricket Ground (MCG) is located in Brunton Avenue, Richmond.
The address for the luxury Hilton Hotel in Sydney is 488 George Street, Central Business District, Sydney.
Parliament House is located on Parliament Drive, Canberra, ACT.

Commas are used to set off geographical names.

Examples:

The Great Barrier Reef is located off the coast of Queensland, Australia.
A popular tourist drive is the Great Ocean Road, Victoria.
Mount Wellington towers above the city of Hobart, Tasmania.

Commas are used to set off parts of an address.

Examples:

The Melbourne Cricket Ground (MCG) is located in Brunton Avenue, Richmond.
The address for the luxury Hilton Hotel in Sydney is 488 George Street, Central Business District, Sydney.
Parliament House is located on Parliament Drive, Canberra, ACT.

1. Use commas to set off the geographical names in these sentences. Then write two of your own sentences, including commas to set off geographical names.

(a) We live in Perth Western Australia and our cousins live in Perth Tasmania.
(b) My mother was born in Rockhampton Queensland.
(c) Many tourists camp at Uluru Northern Territory.
(d) In 2000, the Olympic Games was held in Sydney New South Wales.
(e) Coorong National Park is situated to the south of Adelaide South Australia.
(f) __________________________
(g) __________________________

2. Use commas to separate the parts of the address in these sentences. Then write two of your own sentences, including commas to set off geographical names.

(a) The courier delivered the parcel to 260 Flemington Street Carlton Victoria.
(b) Farmville Primary School is located on West Highway Greenmount WA.
(c) Their address is 51 Stott Way Woodvale ACT.
(d) The removalist van travelled 25 kilometres from 88 Herbert Drive Coogee to 47 Miller Avenue Northcliff.
(e) __________________________
(f) __________________________